BEST SELLERS
Dir: Lisa Roesler
Stars: Michael Caine, Aubrey Plaza, Scott Speedman

Cinematic treasure Michael Caine shares wonderful chemistry with Aubrey Plaza in this surprisingly heartwarming tale of a feisty, retired author reluctantly embarking on a final book tour to help out his young publisher.

THE EYES OF TAMMY FAYE
Dir: Michael Showalter
Stars: Jessica Chastain, Andrew Garfield, Cherry Jones

An intimate look at the extraordinary rise, fall and redemption of televangelist Tammy Faye Bakker. A story almost as astonishing as Jessica Chastain’s utter commitment to the role.

Oscar nominated: Best Actress, Best Hair & Make-up.

CRAZY Rich A
AN

PARALLEL MOTHERS
Dir: Pedro Almodóvar
Stars: Penélope Cruz, Tania Smit, Israel Eslade

A story of two mothers who give birth the same day that is simultaneously personal and political. Not only a tale of two women and their intertwined lives, but also about Spain’s tumultuous history. Oscar nominated: Best Actress and Best Original Score.

In Spanish with English subtitles.

DEATH ON THE NILE
Dir: Kenneth Branagh
Stars: Annette Bening, Kenneth Branagh, Gal Gadot, Jennifer Saunders, Dawn French

A glamorous, star-studded sequel to the equally glamorous and star-studded “Murder on the Orient Express”. With a few clever alterations to the original whodunit, this might not play out exactly how you remember. And with a cast like this, you might not care if it does.

WINNER of the Gold List Award for Breakout Indie Film.

DELIÇIOUS
Dir: Éric Besson
Stars: Grégoire Gadebois, Isabelle Carré, Benjamin Lavernhe

The story of Alana Kane and Gary Valentine growing up, running around and going through the treacherous navigation of first love in the San Fernando Valley, 1973. Oscar nominated: Best Actress, Best Hair & Make-up.

THE KIDS ARE BACK
Dir: Michel Laroque
Stars: Michel Laroque, Stéphane De Groodt, Alice de Lencquesaing

Catherine and Yann, happily married for many years, planned on spending the year traveling abroad. Instead, their 27-year-old servant and opening their first restaurant.

WINNER of the Audience Award for Best Documentary at the Tribeca Film Festival.

THE TRAGEDY OF MACBETH
Dir: Joel Coen

THE QUEEN
Dir: Pablo Larraín

The story of Alana Kane and Gary Valentine growing up, running around and going through the treacherous navigation of first love in the San Fernando Valley, 1973. Oscar nominated: Best Film, Best Director, Best Screenplay.

---

INDIA: SWEETS AND SPICES
Dir: Geeta Malik
Stars: Sophia Ali, Manisha Koirala, Rish Shah

When college freshman Ali returns home for the summer, she discovers secrets and lies in her parents’ past that make her question everything she thought she knew about her family. Winner of the Gold List Award for Breakout Indie Film.

BEST SELLERS
Dir: M. Night Shyamalan
Stars: Michael Fassbender, James McAvoy, Jessica Chastain

From the makers of “Sherpa” and a sequel of sorts to “Mountain”. A cinematic and musical odyssey that explores the remarkable relationship between humans and rivers. Featuring music by the Australian Chamber Orchestra and Ed Greenwood. Not so much a documentary as an experience.

RIVER
Dir: Jennifer Jason Leigh, Joseph Nizeti
Stars: Will Smith, Aunjanue Ellis, Jon Bernthal

The story of Alana Kane and Gary Valentine growing up, running around and going through the treacherous navigation of first love in the San Fernando Valley, 1973. Oscar nominated: Best Film, Best Director, Best Screenplay.
